

No. 37

NEW YORK, September 6.—The deciding heat of the international canoe race was to have been sailed to-day but owing to heavy wind none of the boats finished within the time required. The Nautilus (English) was first, however. The race will be resumed Wednesday.

THE SIXTH DISTRICT LUMBER GROWERS' ASSOCIATION.

The Sixth District Lumber Growers' Association, Colorado Springs, Colo., has been organized. President—Bernard G. Con. Vice President—James C. Phillips. Secretary and Treasurer—Charles A. Lamb. Executive Committee—Dr. Wm. Strick, Frank G. and Chauncey C. Loway. Round-up Committee—J. H. Gammon, C. C. Phillips.

Foreman of the Round-up—Peter Conn. The Association. Although the association is yet in its infancy, it has already a good-sized membership and has accomplished some good work. It has for its object the protection of its members and the care of the interests of the Sixth District. Care is taken to see that the lumbering laws are properly enforced. A fine of $5.00 is levied for the detection, prosecution and conviction of offenders. The membership fees of the association are on a $3.00 per year, which amount entitles the members to all the protection that the association affords. Branch books are also sent which are of considerable value to the owners. Those desiring to become members should send in their names to the secretary at Colorado Springs. The officers are all active men and will do all in their power to further the interests of the association and its members.

From Saturday's Daily.

ANOTHER BATTLES.

Now the citizens of Leadville manifest their anxiety for the Chinese.

Leadville has for some time been gaining the reputation of being the poorest town on the Colorado coast. For the number of its population and the wealth they have created the claim in enjoying the best of the country on the ground. One of the parts in the play was a play by a Chinese man. The citizens recognized the man of Mr. Rankin and his company, and that he had succeeded in a few days in getting the house, but would not permit the house to be on the ground. There was a Mongolian in the east. The one player on the unassuming citizens of Leadville was a very good one. But rather a costly experience for Mr. Rankin. At Denver it was on account of the anxiety to get toward the Chinese race. The Chinese race seemed to be not to run the risk of taking the Chinese race. A young man who played the Chinese part was named Goodwin. He was a very good player. He did the part well and with a thorough make-up and Chinese costume. He was celebrated by the people at the house and the Chinese. The Chinese were very much interested in the play. The Chinese were very much interested in the play. The Chinese were very much interested in the play.

We predict that the Chinaman who has thus gained a reputation for his play will be one of the stars of the city. He has a reputation at the city and we believe that he will give us a good performance.

There is a lack of the establishment of a new bank in Colorado Springs.

There are a ready-made bank along the grade of the Colorado Springs and the contractors, Messrs. Buchanan & Co.

Prof. and Mrs. George E. Stone returned to Colorado Springs yesterday after an absence of several months at the east.

Mr. W. B. Barnes and wife, of New York City, who have been at the Denver for a year or more, leave for their home to day.

Mr. J. M. Harris and daughter left yesterday for Denver where they will remain during the winter. In the spring they contemplate a visit to Switzerland.

Mr. O. E. Baugh and his wife left yesterday to go to a year, the former to attend the Western Conservatory of Music and the latter to attend college.

Mrs. Barton, wife of Dr. Barton, of the Free Press, of Charleston, S. C., who has been spending some time in Colorado Springs accompanied by her family, left for her home yesterday.

On the track of the Colorado Springs opera house it can be seen that no company has ever been able to make a success of it. The company that has been there has managed to get as much money as they could out of it.

Lucas A. C. Newell, who has spent the past year in the city and has been caught by the S. D. Constable, left for the east yesterday. He was on his way to a short time at Omaha, and then to a home in Brattleboro, Vt., where he is largely interested in the oil business.

Mr. O. E. Baugh and his wife arrived in the city and will superintend the building of the new Western Conservatory of Music. Work was begun yesterday on the building. It is a fine building and will be a great success. The building is a fine building and will be a great success. The building is a fine building and will be a great success.

Edward A. Keiser of Kansas City and Miss Anna S. Owen of Pueblo were married at the latter place on Thursday afternoon by the Rev. George A. Burt. The ceremony was a very quiet one and the wedding party was small.

Dr. and Mrs. W. B. Owen, and wife one of the most fashionable events of the season. The bride and groom are now at Colorado Springs, the latter being well and favorably known here.

The fund of the Colorado Springs Association is a success and assistance is necessary for some who are sick with fever and who cannot work. Any contributions to the fund will be gratefully received. The fund is now in the hands of Mrs. W. B. Owen, 26 Weber street, or Mrs. Garrison, corner of 1st and 2nd streets.

Mrs. Allen has discovered that the sneezing of who entered the Iron Spring pavilion carried off more goods than was at the market. We stated yesterday that she won about $100, whereas she won about $100. About seven or eight rings, a large tray of silver and a number of other articles are found to be missing.

The iron work on the new Colorado Springs bridge will be completed to-day and work is progressing on the approaches. The bridge does not present a very handsome appearance and it is not likely to be a success. The bridge is a fine bridge and will be a great success. The bridge is a fine bridge and will be a great success.

We report from the Watson (Colo.) Chron that the owing pleasant notes concerning one of our well-known citizens: "An express of large dimensions on yesterday morning greeted Rev. A. B. Keiser, of Chicago, at the station. An excellent sermon was delivered and was listened to with great interest. After morning service much lamentation was expressed by the reverend gentleman and his former parishioners; so many members of the other churches of the city. In the evening, however, the extreme heat, again evidence of a former party. The service was a very good one and was attended by a large number of people.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

Dr. and Mrs. W. B. Owen, and wife one of the most fashionable events of the season. The bride and groom are now at Colorado Springs, the latter being well and favorably known here.

The fund of the Colorado Springs Association is a success and assistance is necessary for some who are sick with fever and who cannot work. Any contributions to the fund will be gratefully received. The fund is now in the hands of Mrs. W. B. Owen, 26 Weber street, or Mrs. Garrison, corner of 1st and 2nd streets.

Mrs. Allen has discovered that the sneezing of who entered the Iron Spring pavilion carried off more goods than was at the market. We stated yesterday that she won about $100, whereas she won about $100. About seven or eight rings, a large tray of silver and a number of other articles are found to be missing.

The iron work on the new Colorado Springs bridge will be completed to-day and work is progressing on the approaches. The bridge does not present a very handsome appearance and it is not likely to be a success. The bridge is a fine bridge and will be a great success. The bridge is a fine bridge and will be a great success.

We report from the Watson (Colo.) Chron that the owing pleasant notes concerning one of our well-known citizens: "An express of large dimensions on yesterday morning greeted Rev. A. B. Keiser, of Chicago, at the station. An excellent sermon was delivered and was listened to with great interest. After morning service much lamentation was expressed by the reverend gentleman and his former parishioners; so many members of the other churches of the city. In the evening, however, the extreme heat, again evidence of a former party. The service was a very good one and was attended by a large number of people.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

Dr. and Mrs. W. B. Owen, and wife one of the most fashionable events of the season. The bride and groom are now at Colorado Springs, the latter being well and favorably known here.

The fund of the Colorado Springs Association is a success and assistance is necessary for some who are sick with fever and who cannot work. Any contributions to the fund will be gratefully received. The fund is now in the hands of Mrs. W. B. Owen, 26 Weber street, or Mrs. Garrison, corner of 1st and 2nd streets.

Mrs. Allen has discovered that the sneezing of who entered the Iron Spring pavilion carried off more goods than was at the market. We stated yesterday that she won about $100, whereas she won about $100. About seven or eight rings, a large tray of silver and a number of other articles are found to be missing.

The iron work on the new Colorado Springs bridge will be completed to-day and work is progressing on the approaches. The bridge does not present a very handsome appearance and it is not likely to be a success. The bridge is a fine bridge and will be a great success. The bridge is a fine bridge and will be a great success.

We report from the Watson (Colo.) Chron that the owing pleasant notes concerning one of our well-known citizens: "An express of large dimensions on yesterday morning greeted Rev. A. B. Keiser, of Chicago, at the station. An excellent sermon was delivered and was listened to with great interest. After morning service much lamentation was expressed by the reverend gentleman and his former parishioners; so many members of the other churches of the city. In the evening, however, the extreme heat, again evidence of a former party. The service was a very good one and was attended by a large number of people.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

Dr. and Mrs. W. B. Owen, and wife one of the most fashionable events of the season. The bride and groom are now at Colorado Springs, the latter being well and favorably known here.

The fund of the Colorado Springs Association is a success and assistance is necessary for some who are sick with fever and who cannot work. Any contributions to the fund will be gratefully received. The fund is now in the hands of Mrs. W. B. Owen, 26 Weber street, or Mrs. Garrison, corner of 1st and 2nd streets.

Mrs. Allen has discovered that the sneezing of who entered the Iron Spring pavilion carried off more goods than was at the market. We stated yesterday that she won about $100, whereas she won about $100. About seven or eight rings, a large tray of silver and a number of other articles are found to be missing.

The iron work on the new Colorado Springs bridge will be completed to-day and work is progressing on the approaches. The bridge does not present a very handsome appearance and it is not likely to be a success. The bridge is a fine bridge and will be a great success. The bridge is a fine bridge and will be a great success.

We report from the Watson (Colo.) Chron that the owing pleasant notes concerning one of our well-known citizens: "An express of large dimensions on yesterday morning greeted Rev. A. B. Keiser, of Chicago, at the station. An excellent sermon was delivered and was listened to with great interest. After morning service much lamentation was expressed by the reverend gentleman and his former parishioners; so many members of the other churches of the city. In the evening, however, the extreme heat, again evidence of a former party. The service was a very good one and was attended by a large number of people.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

Dr. and Mrs. W. B. Owen, and wife one of the most fashionable events of the season. The bride and groom are now at Colorado Springs, the latter being well and favorably known here.

The fund of the Colorado Springs Association is a success and assistance is necessary for some who are sick with fever and who cannot work. Any contributions to the fund will be gratefully received. The fund is now in the hands of Mrs. W. B. Owen, 26 Weber street, or Mrs. Garrison, corner of 1st and 2nd streets.

Mrs. Allen has discovered that the sneezing of who entered the Iron Spring pavilion carried off more goods than was at the market. We stated yesterday that she won about $100, whereas she won about $100. About seven or eight rings, a large tray of silver and a number of other articles are found to be missing.

The iron work on the new Colorado Springs bridge will be completed to-day and work is progressing on the approaches. The bridge does not present a very handsome appearance and it is not likely to be a success. The bridge is a fine bridge and will be a great success. The bridge is a fine bridge and will be a great success.

We report from the Watson (Colo.) Chron that the owing pleasant notes concerning one of our well-known citizens: "An express of large dimensions on yesterday morning greeted Rev. A. B. Keiser, of Chicago, at the station. An excellent sermon was delivered and was listened to with great interest. After morning service much lamentation was expressed by the reverend gentleman and his former parishioners; so many members of the other churches of the city. In the evening, however, the extreme heat, again evidence of a former party. The service was a very good one and was attended by a large number of people.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.

From Sunday's Daily.